Speaker Introduction: Sharman Lawson Debt and Personal Finance Coach and Trainer

Who here wants to experience life without debt?

To be able to eliminate debt, start saving, giving, investing, and creating wealth?

To discover simple concepts and strategies that you can start using immediately to change your financial situation?

If your answer is yes to all those questions, and I know it must be, please allow me to introduce you to our speaker Sharman Lawson.

Sharman Lawson is living proof that you can live debt-free. Born and raised in Portland, Oregon in a household of 10 including her parents, she learned early in life the concepts of living by faith, taking hold of a vision, practicing discipline, and using wisdom and common sense to realize her dreams. Her mother and her father, an ordained minister, preached and practiced the importance of never being a “slave to the lender.”

In 1999, Sharman started Freedom Concepts USA after she and her husband paid off all their debt including their home in five years. You will be inspired after hearing her testimony. She'll let you know it's not your education, your title, your position or the amount of money you make. It's stepping out on faith, trusting God, believing the impossible is possible, and knowing that going after your purpose, passion and dream is better than all the sacrifices.

Sharman is the author of the book 12 Steps to Eliminate Debt Forever, and has been featured in Money Magazine for Women, The Oregonian Newspaper, and appeared on Trinity Broadcasting Network, Atlanta Live, and Good Day Northwest. Sharman regularly speaks at schools, churches, corporations, and non-profit organizations teaching both youth and adults about money, career, and life skills.

We are honored to have Sharman with us today. Please clap your hands and welcome Sharman Lawson, the coach and trainer that can help you create financial freedom through debt free living.
